

The 2016 Pennsylvania Junior Holstein Judging School was sponsored by the Pennsylvania Junior Holstein Association and hosted by the Mifflin County Holstein Association. There were over 65 participants in attendance this year. Herds that were visited during the school: Ver-Nan Holsteins-Vernon Yoder Family, Dryhouse-M Holsteins-Michael Yoder Family, Hollo-Home Holsteins-Shawn Smoker Family, Ardent Farm Jerseys-Tucker Hardy, Peach-Vale Holsteins- Robert Peachey Family and Hamau Farm Ayshires-Gay Rodgers.

Participants had the opportunity to place 16 classes over two days and work on written and oral reasons on classes. Participants were also involved in discussing the classes and talking in front of the whole group on placing the classes. We appreciate the work of Rebecca Shaw who served as the teacher for our two-day conference.

The Pennsylvania Junior Holstein Association is most appreciative to the Mifflin Holstein Association for helping organize the school and allowing us to judge some excellent cattle in their county.
