

News Release

The Pennsylvania Holstein Association announces it is seeking applications for the Distinguished Young Holstein Breeder Award. The contest is open to any Pennsylvania and National Holstein Association member between the ages of 21-40 (as of December 31, 2019) who owns or has management responsibilities for a herd of cows. The herd must be on official DHIA test.

The award is to recognize accomplishments of Young Holstein Breeders and to encourage them to establish goals that will aid in their management decisions to help achieve a profitable dairy operation.

The winning entry from Pennsylvania will receive a complementary room at the 2019 State Convention and Convention Banquet tickets. They will also have their entry sent on for National competition.

Applications for the Distinguished Young Holstein Breeder Award are available by contacting:
