

Pennsylvania Junior Holstein Association
Star of the Breed Award

The Pennsylvania Junior Holstein Star of the Breed Award is developed to annually recognize one cow, and her owner, who have excelled in the show ring as well as with production records.

Criteria for selection of the Star of the Breed include:

- The cow must be owned by Pennsylvania Junior Holstein Association member(s)
- The cow must place in the top five in her class at one of the following:
 - Premier National Junior Holstein Show
 - International Junior Holstein Show
 - North American International Livestock Exposition Junior Holstein Show
- Have completed a lactation in the last year
- Have an official classification score
