

Pennsylvania Holstein Association
2022
Show Rules and Regulations

1. Entries

Any animal identified with the Holstein Association USA Inc. that is 87% or higher Registered Holstein Ancestry and owned by a Pennsylvania Holstein Association member or Pennsylvania Holstein Association Junior member is eligible. All partnership or syndicate members must be members of the Pennsylvania Holstein Association or Pennsylvania Junior Holstein Association, and all memberships are paid at the time of check-in. At least one member of the partnership or syndicate must be a resident of Pennsylvania. Observe the entry deadline and submit entries and fees as instructed for the show to be entered.

2. Certificates of Registry

Certificates of registration from Holstein USA Inc. must be in the exhibitor's name and available to show management when the animal is checked into the show. If the certificate of registration from the Holstein Association USA Inc. is not in the exhibitor's name at the time of the show, then the animals may be eligible to be shown if a signed transfer with payment attached and the Holstein Association USA Inc. registry certificate is turned over to the show management before the show. No pending registrations will be accepted. ANIMALS WITHOUT REGISTRY CERTIFICATES IN HAND WILL NOT BE PERMITTED TO SHOW AT THE STATE SHOWS OR REGIONAL SHOWS.

3. Group Entries

Entries for group classes may be submitted as a late entry, but must be submitted/entered when animals are checked into the show. However, entry by deadline date will ensure listing in the show catalog. There is no fee for group classes.

4. Premier Exhibitor Defined and Procedure:

To be eligible for Exhibitor points, the Exhibitor must be listed as one of the owners, either as an individual or as a member of a syndicate. In case a herd is registered or bred in names of different members of a family, residing on one farm or breeding establishment and where the herd is one unit, all entries may be considered as a single exhibitor. Animals owned in partnership will assign the Exhibitor at the time of animal check-in, it is the Exhibitors responsibility to contact show management to define the Exhibitor. Only one Exhibitor will be defined for Exhibitor recognition, there will be no splitting of Exhibitor points.

-If you would like to be considered for this recognition, you MUST fill out the appropriate form and submit to the show coordinator prior to the start of the show. Forms will be available the day before the show.

5. Premier Breeder Defined

The individual whose prefix appears on the Registry Certificate shall be considered the breeder of the animals for tabulation of Premier Breeder points.

-If you would like to be considered for this recognition, you MUST fill out the appropriate form and submit to the show coordinator prior to the start of the show. Forms will be available the day before the show.

6. Partnership or Syndicate Ownership

Animals owned in partnership will assign the Exhibitor at the time of animal check-in, it is the Exhibitors responsibility to contact show management to define the Exhibitor. Only one Exhibitor will be defined for Exhibitor recognition, there will be no splitting of Exhibitor points.

7. Junior Exhibitors

Junior Holstein Showing Policy as issued by Holstein USA will be followed at all PHA sanctioned shows. In addition:

-To be eligible for Junior Recognition, a junior owned animal must be shown by the Pennsylvania Junior Holstein member owner. If a sub is necessary, another Pennsylvania Junior Holstein member of the same age or younger may exhibit the animal

-Animals leased only through the Holstein Association USA Lease Program are eligible for Youth Recognition at Pennsylvania Holstein sponsored shows. Leased animals must be shown by the lessee at all shows or the lease will be terminated! Lease applications for all must be received and processed at Holstein USA by July 15 of that year.

-Junior membership to PHA must be paid. Membership to Holstein USA is at the juniors discretion keeping in mind that you must have a paid membership to participate in the national level programs.

8. Premier Awards
